CORTLAND POLICE DEPARTMENT

MONTHLY REPORT

INCIDENT SUMMARY

On April 03, 2020, the Cortland Police were dispatched to George Ave. for a delayed domestic dispute report.

The victim in this incident reported a male subject she had previously dated had broken into her house during the night. The victim stated she did not hear the subject force his way into the house, but woke up to find him standing over her while she had been sleeping. The subject did not physically assault or batter the victim. He told her he was looking for jewelry he had previously gifted her. When she told him she did not know where the items were, he stole an Amazon "Fire Stick", shredded some flowers given to the victim by her new boyfriend and left the residence.

The investigation into this incident involved several interviews with the victim, collecting physical evidence and photographs. The suspect declined to be interviewed.

The incident was screened with the DeKalb County State's Attorney's office and in collaboration a criminal complaint and arrest warrant was issued for the suspect. He was charged with two counts of Violation of a Bail Bond Condition. Additional charges were not issued based on the decision of the victim to not pursue other charges. The suspect turned himself into the DeKalb County Sheriff's Officer.
